

I've been a huge fan of Xm radio for about a year now and the quality and selection are second to none. I live in the state of CT. and commute through MA and NY, so the traffic and weather are very important. If you listen to conventional radio you only get traffic every 2 to 4 hours. Now I get it around the clock, just like the weather channel on TV.